

---

Preparing to Teach the Holocaust:
Online Training and Resources from the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center of Nassau County

Session one: Meeting you where you are

8:30-9:00 Welcome and Introductions. (Helen, Thorin and Rachel – Who we are, what we do.
Group intros: (Who they are, where do they teacher, what do they teach, fun fact?)

9:00 -9:30 Reviewing last year: How did teaching the Holocaust look in your classroom?
Debrief our different starting points.

Zoom: Break-out groups (2) (10 mins)

Question: How did you teach the Holocaust last year? Were you able to?

Zoom: Back together ( 20 mins)

Activity: Share out as a group.

Stretch Break

Session Two: Virtual Learning

9:35-10:00 – Virtual Learning

Helen and Thorin Demo Galleries 1 and 2A

Session Three: HMTC Resources

10:00-10:20 - What we can do for you?

- A. Logistics: Rachel—what you need to do to book, how we scaffold, how we support
- B. Virtual tours – Helen and Thorin model gallery 1, Rachel welcome everyone to the virtual center?
- C. Curators corner – Thorin describe
- D. PD: Courageous Conversations and Americans and The Holocaust – Helen describe
- E. Survivor and 2G testimonies -- Rachel describe

10:20-10:30: Wrapping up and next steps – Rachel

- A. Individual scaffolding sessions – Helen
- B. Upcoming programs –Thorin

10:30 – Helen close out